

ClearPath Content Engine

Document: 08 of 10 Phase: Phase 3 Status: Complete Generated: 2026-04-04

Overview

The content engine exists for one reason: drive traffic to the Analyzer tool. Every piece of content should end with a version of "Run the numbers yourself → clearpath.com."

The Analyzer does the selling. Content does the attracting.

Content Strategy in One Line:

Teach people how to analyze deals → Give them a free tool to do it → Capture their email → If they're in Cook County, pitch the service.

Content Pillars

Everything ClearPath publishes falls under one of four pillars:

PILLAR	PURPOSE	EXAMPLE TOPICS
1. Deal Breakdown	Show how real deals are analyzed — makes the Analyzer relevant	"I ran the numbers on a $95K duplex in Roseland"
2. Investor Education	Teach fundamentals — builds trust and authority	"The 70% Rule explained in 60 seconds"
3. Cook County Market Intel	Local expertise — positions the Asset Group	"Top 5 Cook County suburbs for cash flow in 2026"
4. Behind the Build	Show rehab projects in progress — proves execution	"Week 4 of our Oak Forest flip — before & after"

Platform Strategy

Primary Platforms

PLATFORM	CONTENT TYPE	POSTING FREQUENCY	GOAL
YouTube (Long)	Deal breakdowns, walkthroughs, education	1-2x / week	SEO + authority
YouTube Shorts / TikTok / Reels	30-60 sec clips from longer content	4-5x / week	Reach + awareness
Instagram	Carousels, before/after, stories	3-4x / week	Brand + social proof
Twitter / X	Quick takes, threads, deal teardowns	Daily	Engagement + reach

Secondary Platforms

PLATFORM	CONTENT TYPE	FREQUENCY	GOAL
Email Newsletter	Weekly market update + featured deal	1x / week	Retention + re-engagement
BiggerPockets Forum	Answer questions, link to Analyzer	2-3x / week	Targeted investor traffic
Blog (clearpath.com/blog)	SEO articles on investing topics	2x / month	Organic search traffic

Content Funnel

Every piece of content maps to a stage in the funnel:

Content Formats (Templates)

Format 1: Deal Breakdown Video (YouTube — 8–12 min)

Structure:

[Hook — 15 sec]
"I just found a 3-bed in Tinley Park listed at $115K.
Let me show you if the numbers actually work."

[The Property — 1 min]
Show listing photos, map, neighborhood context.

[Run the Analyzer — 3 min]
Screen record of entering the address into ClearPath.
Walk through each output: ARV, rehab, rent, cash flow, flip profit.

[The Verdict — 2 min]
Is it a deal? Green, yellow, or red? Why?
What would the MAO be?

[The Lesson — 2 min]
One takeaway the viewer can apply to their own deals.
"Always check the rehab-to-ARV ratio..."

[CTA — 30 sec]
"Want to run your own deal? Link in the description.
It's free. Takes 60 seconds."

Output: 1 long video → 3–4 short clips → 1 carousel → 2 tweets

Format 2: Before/After Carousel (Instagram — 10 slides)

Structure:

Slide 1: "We turned this $95K property into $1,650/mo cash flow"
Slide 2: Before photo (exterior)
Slide 3: After photo (exterior)
Slide 4: Before photo (kitchen)
Slide 5: After photo (kitchen)
Slide 6: Before photo (bathroom)
Slide 7: After photo (bathroom)
Slide 8: The Numbers: Purchase $95K | Rehab $42K | ARV $175K | Rent $1,650
Slide 9: "We handle the rehab + lease-up. You collect the rent."
Slide 10: CTA – "Analyze your next deal → link in bio"

Format 3: Short-Form Video (Reels / Shorts / TikTok — 30–60 sec)

Hook Types That Work:

HOOK	EXAMPLE
The "I Found" Hook	"I found a house for $80K that cash flows $400/month"
The Myth Buster	"Everyone says you need 20% down. Wrong."
The Quick Tip	"One number that tells you if a deal is worth it"
The Controversy	"Stop buying rentals in these zip codes"
The Behind the Scenes	"Day 1 of our gut rehab in Oak Forest"

Structure:

[Hook – 3 sec] → Stop the scroll
[Setup – 10 sec] → Context
[Value – 30 sec] → The lesson or walkthrough
[CTA – 5 sec] → "Link in bio to analyze your own deals"

Format 4: Twitter/X Thread (5–8 tweets)

Template:

Tweet 1 (Hook):
"I ran the numbers on a $120K duplex in Calumet City.

Here's exactly what I found 🧮"

Tweet 2: The property details (beds, baths, sqft, condition)
Tweet 3: ARV + how I calculated it
Tweet 4: Rehab estimate breakdown
Tweet 5: Cash flow calculation (rent - expenses - mortgage)
Tweet 6: Flip profit calculation

Tweet 7: The verdict – deal or no deal?

Tweet 8 (CTA):

"Want to run your own numbers? I built a free tool for this.

→ clearpath.com"

Format 5: Weekly Newsletter

Template:

Subject: Cook County Deal Radar – Week of [Date]

🏠 DEAL OF THE WEEK

[Address] – [City], IL

Listed at $XXX,XXX

ARV: $XXX,XXX | Rehab: $XX,XXX | Cash Flow: $X,XXX/mo

Signal: ● Strong

Content → Tool → Lead Attribution

Track where Analyzer traffic comes from:

UTM Structure:

clearpath.com?utm_source=[platform]&utm_medium=[format]&utm_campaign=[topic]

Examples:

clearpath.com?utm_source=youtube&utm_medium=video&utm_campaign=roseland_duplex clearpath.com?utm_source=instagram&utm_medium=carousel&utm_campaign=cook_county_top5 clearpath.com?utm_source=twitter&utm_medium=thread&utm_campaign=70pct_rule clearpath.com?utm_source=newsletter&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=week3

Store `utm_source` in the leads table → know exactly which content drives conversions.

Repurposing System

One long-form piece produces 6+ pieces of content:

1 YouTube Video (10 min)

- └ 3 Short clips (Reels / Shorts / TikTok)
- └ 1 Instagram carousel (key screenshots + numbers)

- └─ 1 Twitter thread (text version of the breakdown)
- └─ 1 Newsletter feature (Deal of the Week)
- └─ 1 Blog post (SEO-optimized written version)

Rule: Never create content that only lives in one place.
